

WATER DISTRICT MAKING SEARCH FOR FAULT LINE

The Alameda County Water District, in an endeavor to prepare its newly acquired grave pit reservoir system for use before the fall rains, is this week making an exploration of the pits in an attempt to find the fault line which serves as an underground dam.

H. F. Harrold, engineer for the water district, said this week that the composition of the fault is not definitely known, but it is believed to be formed from a layer of cemented gravels. By test drilling near the Shinn Lake it is hoped to find the exact location of the fault and thus seal off any breaks that have occurred in the structure.

UNDERGROUND DAM

Harrold pointed out that the water table in the wells above the fault, which would be between Shinn Lake and Niles Canyon, is 19 feet above sea level, while the water table directly below the fault, or west of Shinn Lake, is 30 feet below sea level, and tapers on down as it approaches the bay.

The work is being rushed to prepare the system for the fall rains. Under the plan the flow of water down Alameda Creek could be diverted into the gravel pits to allow percolation into the underlying gravel beds which hold the water tables supplying the wells of this area.

WOULD SAVE CREEK FLOW

W. D. Patterson, president of the water district, stated yesterday that the muddy water would be allowed to flow on down the creek, pointing out that the silt contained in the early flood waters would seal off the exposed gravel and hinder percolation. Only after the water had sufficiently cleared of silt would it be diverted in the gravel pits.

HE SHOULD BE A TOUGH HOMBRE

Draft registrars at Washington Union High School felt for their billfolds and took a hurried count of pencils, pens, and other equipment one day this week after one of the youths had completed his sign-up and walked out of the room.

The lad had an honest face, and they didn't know him—but, well, he gave as his birthplace, Thief River Falls, Minnesota, which is a little odd for the name of a town, but when it came down to the blank for his current home town residence and he stated, "Crook's Town, Minnesota," it was too much for the registrars.

PUBLIC HEARINGS HERE ON JUNIOR COLLEGE ISSUE

Public hearings on the proposal to establish a junior college district in Alameda County will be conducted the remainder of the month throughout the entire county with meetings slated to be held in each of the elementary schools.

The issue will be on the ballot at the November general election and the meetings are being conducted in each of the elementary schools of the county to better acquaint the residents with the background of the proposal.

The meetings have been scheduled in the township as follows:
September 16—Centerville.
September 17—Irvine.
September 20—Newark.
September 21—Mission San Jose.
September 22—Warm Springs.
September 23—Decoto.
September 24—Alviso.
September 30—Niles.

Chairmen appointed by County Superintendent of Schools Vaughn Seidel to conduct the meetings here are: George H. Hockings, Alvarado; S. G. Scott, Newark; Michael Overacker, Mission San Jose; Bernie Joseph, Decoto; Judge Allen G. Norris, Centerville; J. Orville Leitch, Warm Springs; and Lovell Scott, Niles. The appointment of chairmen in the Irvington and Alviso School districts is yet to be announced.

FIRST HONORS TO MISSION YMI IN OAKLAND PARADE

Competing against a field of more than 30 attractive floats in the Italian Catholic Federation parade in Oakland last Sunday, the entry of the Lady of Fatima Council, Y.M.I., Mission San Jose, won first honors.

For winning top honors in the amateur division of the parade, the council was presented with a large gold trophy with an appropriate engraving.

The beautiful float was a replica of the Old Mission at Mission San Jose, depicting early California civilization, and was constructed entirely by members of the Y.M.I. group here. Riding on the float were youngsters of several of the members.

The committee which worked on the designing, construction and decoration of the float was composed of Edw. L. Rose, Walter Zybynski, Roland Henry, George Enos, William Enos, Frank Dias, Manuel Guardanapo, Edward Azevedo, Arthur Silva, Leland Telles, Manuel Silva, Harry Rose, Vernon Leal, Clifford Rogers, John Gomes and Al Alonzo.

SCOUT ROUND-UP DINNER SEPT. 16

Reservations are now being accepted for the Boy Scout Round-up dinner to be held in the Trinity Episcopal Church, Hayward, on Thursday, September 16, at 6:30 p.m., according to Don MacDougal, district executive of the South District, and should be mailed to the Scout Office in the Hayward city hall by September 10.

Invited to the affair are Cub, Scout and Senior Scout leaders, institutional representatives, heads of institutions sponsoring Scout units, Den Mothers and commissioners.

SWEENEY PLEADS GUILTY TO TWO FORGERY COUNTS

Jackson Harrold Sweeney, 29, former Niles school teacher charged on three counts of forgery, made a surprise move last Friday by entering a plea of guilty in Superior Court in Oakland.

Sweeney and his attorney, LeRoy A. Brown, Centerville, appeared before Judge James Agee in the Oakland court and changed their plea after fighting the charges through Niles Justice Court. Judge Agee accepted the plea on two counts and ordered the third count dismissed. Brown immediately made application for probation and the case was set over for late this month for sentencing.

Sweeney, who is now employed by a battery company in San Francisco, admitted that he forged the name of his cousin, Glenn Forrest Sweeney, to his cousin's college credentials and acquired teaching credentials which he used while teaching in the Niles school during the 1945-46 term.

The ruse was discovered the second week of the 1946-47 term and his resignation demanded.

ACCUSED ROBBERS IN COURT TODAY

Three Decoto men will appear before Judge E. A. Quaresma in Niles Justice Court at 9 a.m. today (Friday) for a preliminary hearing on charges of robbery.

The defendants, who appeared in court here last Friday for arraignment, are: Manuel R. Baca, 26, 505 Railroad avenue; John M. Miramontes, 19, 517 Tenth street; and Adolfo Leal, 19, Seventh street. They are accused of taking about $8 from Walter J. Hendrickson of Alvarado after allegedly dragging him into an alley following a drinking party.

COMMUNITY CHEST NEEDS MANAGER

With the time rapidly drawing near for the annual Community Chest Campaign the local organization is yet without a campaign manager.

Edward E. Enos, president of the Community Chest for Washington Township, announced this week that a meeting of the Board of Directors has been scheduled for 8 o'clock tonight (Friday) at which time members will be asked to submit names of possible candidates for the post. The meeting will be held in the Centerville Justice Court.

Other officers of the organization are Judge Allen G. Norris, vice-president; Carl Christensen, treasurer; and Carmelita Berge Freitas, secretary. Warren Graves, stock, who so successfully headed the campaign last year, has informed the officers that he will be unable to act in that capacity this year.

JOINS FATHER IN NILES BUSINESS

Lester A. Whitaker Jr. has become a partner with his father in the ownership and operation of the Whitaker Pharmacy in Niles.

The young businessman is a graduate of Washington Union High School and attended Pullman State College in Washington for one year. Last June he was graduated from the University of California with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy. Last month he successfully passed the State Board of Pharmacy examination and has now joined his father in the operation of the local store. He is unmarried and is making his home with his parents.

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. MEET

The first meeting of the new fall term of the P.T.A. of Washington Union High School will be held next Thursday, September 16, in the faculty dining room at the high school, at 8 o'clock.

Parents of freshmen are urged especially to attend this meeting in order to acquaint themselves with school curricula and to meet the teachers. Parents of upper classmen are also, of course, asked to be present for this first fall meeting, at which Mrs. Ruth James, president, will preside.

FIRST CASE OF POLIO REPORTED

The dreaded polio has struck for the first time this year in Washington Township.

Its victim is little 19-month-old Lawrence Gerald Martinelli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martinelli of 453 Third street, Niles.

The youngster became ill last Friday and was taken to Highland Hospital in Oakland where the ailment was diagnosed as polio. A late report yesterday from the hospital stated that he was resting comfortably.

CANNERIES CLOSE PEACH PACK; OPEN TOMATO SEASON

The peach canning season in the three canneries of Washington Township dwindled to a close this week in what the companies termed a "mediocre pack."

Marlo Cannery at Decoto on Wednesday shifted from the peach packing to tomatoes, their heaviest canning product. The tomatoes now being processed are being shipped here from the valley. The local crop, estimated to be about three weeks late, is not expected to begin reaching the plant before the end of this month.

The Schuckl Cannery at Niles closed down the peach packing last Friday and a small crew is now engaged in stemming and coloring maraschino cherries. The stemming process is expected to be completed next week and the coloring process will continue for another three weeks.

The Booth Cannery in Centerville is winding up on the peach run and will shift into the canning of tomatoes in the very near future.

DECOTO CHAMBER BACKS BOND ISSUE

A resolution approving the proposal of the Decoto Sanitary District to issue bonds in the amount of $6,000 was voted by the Decoto Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held Tuesday evening.

The bond issue would be to cover the cost of completing portions of the sewer system in the community and the residents of the district will vote on the proposal at the September 20 election.

The Chamber members also discussed renewed plans for a campaign to obtain a railroad overpass at Railroad and E streets. President Ken Garcia presided over the meeting.

ROTARIANS TOLD OF FUTURE PROBLEMS

"The Next 100 Years in California" was the subject upon which James Hart spoke to the Niles Rotary Club yesterday at the organization's regular weekly luncheon.

Hart, who is northern California manager of the California Manufacturers' Association, stated that fuel, power, water and transportation costs pose definite problems to California manufacturers. As present supplies of natural resources are consumed and diminish, he said, the state must look to outside sources for heat and energy.

Chairman of the day was Claire Lopez.

CHAMBER FETES HYGELUND

Earl Hygelund, treasurer of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, was feted at the luncheon meeting of that organization Wednesday, the occasion marking his twenty-first wedding anniversary.

'DON'T OVER-BUILD,' ARCHITECT TELLS HOSPITAL BOARD

Warning against "over-building" and suggesting that the Washington Township Hospital District should have an expert survey of local hospital needs, D. D. Stone, hospital architect of San Francisco, Wednesday evening consulted with directors of the local district at their regular monthly meeting at Washington Union High School.

Architect Stone, whose organization has designed and supervised construction of a large number of California hospitals, gave the directors advice on several points.

NEED FIVE ACRES

He suggested that a site of at least five acres be used for the hospital, to allow for future growth. He favored two-story construction, regardless of size of the hospital, since a two-story building results in economy of operation.

L. S. Whitaker, president of the directors, pointed out that the district attorney's office had indicated that the local board could not as yet engage any professional advisors and asked the architect about the experiences of other districts in the state.

HIRE ATTORNEY?

Mr. Stone said that every district with which he has worked has retained an attorney and other necessary advisers. Judge E. A. Quaresma, who attended Wednesday's meeting, suggested that the Alameda County district attorney's office be so informed and asked if its opinion might be revised to allow the hiring of necessary help.

With the State Department of Public Health scheduled to revise its priority schedule for state and hospital aid to districts on September 15, the local directors plan to wait until after that date before taking any further steps toward planning for a hospital here. The state department's schedule will determine how soon a hospital can be built here under the financial aid program.

Architect Stone agreed that Washington Township needs a hospital and that this district should receive a high priority.

In addition to the hospital district directors, those attending the meeting were E. E. Enos, Dr. Merle Buehler, Judge E. A. Quaresma, Mrs. Gladys Williamson and L. R. Batman.

CHANGE SCHEDULE OF X-RAY TRUCK

Dr. James Malcolm, Alameda county health officer, early this week announced that the schedule of the Christmas Seal x-ray truck throughout Washington Township had been changed.

Under the new schedule the truck visited Niles Wednesday from 2 until 8 p.m. and will complete its visit to township communities during the next five days.

Today (Friday) the truck will be parked near the Center Theater in Centerville from 2 to 8 p.m. and will return Saturday to the same location to offer its free x-rays from 10 a.m. until 12 noon. Monday from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m. the truck will be located at the Newark post office. On Tuesday between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. the truck will be parked at the Irvington post office and will conclude its round of the township on Wednesday by being stationed at the Decoto Elementary School from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m.

Dr. Malcolm stated that it is not necessary to make appointments and added that the x-ray takes only a minute and it is not necessary to undress. The service is offered free of charge through funds raised from the sale of Christmas Seals and is offered to all persons of the township 15 years of age or older.

BODY OF NILES SOLDIER ARRIVES

The body of Sergeant Joseph M. Allegre, Niles, arrived aboard the U. S. Army Transport Honda Knot last Friday for burial.

The Niles soldier died in the Aleutians during World War II and was one of 221 men from northern California whose bodies were returned to their homeland from Alaska on the funeral ship.

Schools Will Open Monday; Enrollment May Exceed 3,000

School bells will toll throughout Washington Township on Monday morning marking the close of the summer vacation for the pupils of the nine elementary schools and Washington Union High School.

Enrollments in the ten schools are expected to soar well over 3,000 for the 1948-49 term with each school anticipating a record high enrollment.

Many of the schools will be overcrowded until their building programs, now underway, are completed. Without exception all of the schools have filled all the vacancies in the teaching staffs.

DRAFT SIGN-UP IS EXPECTED TO FALL BELOW 1,500 HERE

In the first seven of the 16 days set aside for the registration of 18 to 26-year-olds, but 576 youths had signed up at the center at Washington Union High School, far below the number anticipated.

It had originally been estimated that 2,600 youths would register here, but Chief Registrars Eugene Manning and J. V. Gould expected yesterday that they do not expect the number to exceed 1,500.

The registrars are still in dire need of assistance from volunteers of the area and have again asked that all persons willing to give some time toward the project call at the high school at their earliest convenience.

Of the 576 signed up here during the first seven days, 337 were veterans of World War II and but 136 were local, single, non-veteran, non-fathers.

Today and tomorrow (Friday and Saturday) has been set aside for men born in 1927. Men born in 1928 will sign up on Monday and Tuesday. Those born in 1929 will register on Wednesday and Thursday and those born in 1930 before September 19, will sign up on September 17-18. Men who reach the age of 18 after that date must report to their draft board office within five days following their birthday.

The work is being done by John Pestana of Hayward and includes lines along the highway in the Mission, Bryant, Ellsworth and Palm streets and a line connecting the new system to the Irvington lines. The contract called for the construction to be completed in 180 working days.

NEWS from Walt

Some people think that we have gone out of the second hand furniture business because they do not see it on the first floor. Now we can't put everything on the first floor so we keep it down stairs where we can show it. We also keep most of the finer furniture down stairs where it is protected from the dust. (Dry weather, you know.)

We have something new to show you in a dinette set. It will fit in the smallest of dinettes yet it will open up and seat twelve people. The master chairs are upholstered in a beautiful gold so you can use them as extra chairs in the living room. Priced very reasonable.

A PLACE TO RENT?

Yesterday a young man who works in a local industry came into our office and asked if we knew where he could find a place to rent—a house, an apartment, or even a couple of rooms. Presently he is living, with his wife and baby, in a single room. He and his small family are uncomfortable, worried, desperate.

Not a week passes but that we see other instances of the same desperation for housing.

With the Pacific States Steel Corp. expanding and hiring many more men, with other township industries growing, and with new industries planning to locate here, we see the situation growing worse instead of better.

There have never been enough homes for rent in Washington Township—and the shortage is worse now than at any other time.

The solution, of course, is for more people who have money to invest to invest in rental homes. Congress, in its last session, placed this type of building in highest favor by making the best FHA financing available to rental properties.

Every business man who depends on our local towns for his livelihood should be especially interested in encouraging the building of more homes for rent. Too many persons who make their living in the township live outside of the township—and spend their money where they live.

Every such instance of this points out our backwardness and short-sightedness. Every Chamber of Commerce in the township should wake up to the fact that more rental houses are needed, and should explore every means of encouraging their building.

The leadership can come from the Chambers of Commerce, but of course community and individual interest and effort is necessary for the actual building of houses and apartments.

Let's make housing our Number One job here in Washington Township.

THE SCHOOL BELL RINGS

Millions of young Americans are facing their darkest hour. Vacation is nearly over. Soon the grave problems of getting up early, reaching school on time and doing home work will engage much of their time and thought. It's a bleak outlook—just now.

But in a month they'll be back in the old routine and the world won't seem like such a bad place after all. It happens every year.

The approach of the new school term brings to the fore once again the need for instructing the children more in the art of living. Literature, mathematics, science and so on are important but they lose their value to the individual if he doesn't learn good habits and how to get along with others.

The American public school system has added responsibilities in these days, brought on by the threat of foreign ideologies. The schools must inculcate in our children a love for democracy and an understanding of the fallacy of any scheme which would deprive anyone of his basic human rights.

Of course, this task should not be left entirely to the schools. The home and the church must help. But it behooves every parent—every citizen, whether he has children or not—to take a greater interest in our schools, to support every progressive step and oppose all that would weaken them.

How sound America will be tomorrow depends on how sound our schools are today.

getting "all set" for the new school year was given your correspondent.

Herman Medeiros, new custodian, has been on the job steadily getting the flower garden and lawns in tip top shape and helping in all the rest of the following improvements:

First of all, and the most important item, was the remodeling and fixing of the furnace which had given so much trouble. This has been modernized and this winter it is hoped will give better service and use less fuel. Each and every room has been scraped, sanded and varnished, both floors and desks. The boys' rest room has been remodeled and new fixtures put in, the library has been made into an office with telephone and principals equipment placed there, the teachers' room has been cleaned and the old furniture done over and will soon have some new upholstery done. The shingles on the outer building have been treated, new post holes dug by Trustee Frank Vargas for the new swings, and a bit later in the season the volleyball court will be placed on the west of the two tennis courts instead of between them.

This has been a lengthy program and if finances permitted more would have been done, but cash only goes so far, but each time possible new things will be added and new playground equipment purchased.

School officially opens on September 13 and the staff this year will include Mrs. Hazel Millard, our very efficient first, second and third grade teacher who has been with us a number of years; Mrs. Edith Aubrey King, who has been one of the "stand-bys" in our school for over twenty years, will teach fourth, fifth and sixth; while our new principal will have the older boys and girls of the seventh and eighth grades. The enrollment is not known as yet but it is hoped that there will be a substantial gain over last year. Mrs. Harriet Finger, music teacher, will again instruct the youngsters for they all did very well under her teaching last year.

Herman will attend one day of the custodians' convention to learn how other custodians in the state are handling their schools, and Mr. Michael Overacker and Mr. Click will attend teachers' institute one day this week to learn the newest angles on school technique.

On September 21, at the grammar school, there will be a public meeting with Michael Overacker, trustee, acting as chairman, to hear the pros and cons on the new proposed junior college for this section of the county. Every one is especially urged to attend and learn all about the business at hand and lend their voice either for or against such an educational institution. Do not forget the date. It is important. Remember September 21.

The out of town boys and girls will be picked up as in years before by teachers and Mrs. Larry Thompson who has a son, Thompy, in school this year, will bring some of them down from over by the Mission Hereford Ranch.

CITY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McClure and son of San Francisco spent a two weeks' vacation at the Peak Meadow Ranch with his mother, Mrs. Margaret M. McClure. They returned this week-end to the city where Stewart is employed as a police reporter on a bay area paper.

RETURN TO PIEDMONT

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore and daughters of Piedmont, who had summered here at their ranch in the Mission Peak area, have also returned to their Piedmont home as Mr. Moore had to return to his teaching duties at the university, where he instructs English.

Thinking Things Over...

By VIVIAN BATMAN

I noticed for the first time a sign down on Marsh Road and wondered who the optimist was who put it there. It reads: NO PASSING DURING HIGH WATER.

People who attended the State Fair tell me that it was so hot in Sacramento that glasses of water—just plain water—were selling for 10 cents!

TIMELY TIPS

In case you don't know how to spend your time this week, may I offer a few suggestions:

For your reading: The September 11 issue of the Saturday Evening Post. In it there are some of the finest articles I have read in months.

For your music: Listen to the popular ditty, "Buttons and Bows." It's cute, and will probably become a hit.

For your dining: Have you ever been to the Robin Hood in downtown Oakland? It's quaint atmosphere, with food that actually has that home-cooked flavor. A large assortment of desserts for you sweet-toothers.

A movie to see: "Tap Roots"—if you like historical pictures with a lot of action, and enough love (if you're romantic).

Stage production: "Medea" with Judith Anderson, in San Francisco. What a treat to be able to see it here on the coast! Very "arty," so don't expect popular song hits and live patter.

ONE DAY OF REAL LIVING

The poem below isn't printed because of any particular poetic value. Better poems have been composed. But the thought behind it is so worthwhile that I hope it will inspire you as it did me. You might call it a two-stanza sermon—and what a lot of meat there is in it!

HAD I BUT ONE DAY
Had I but one day of my life remaining,

Then should I see this generous world I love—

The dawn, the noon, the glorious color staining

The western sky, the star serene above—

With clearer eye than ever I employ.

Then I should listen with acuter ear

And smell and taste and touch with sharper joy;

Then would so many things be newly dear.

HAD I BUT ONE DAY OF LIFE YET TO LIVE,

I should be much more eager to forgive

And sympathize and help and love and pray

Before the numbered hours had hurried past.

Ah, this is what they must mean when they say,

"Live every day as if it were the last."

—Elaine V. Emans

Most homemakers say they can never put up enough to last through the winter but they always try! So get a big supply of cucumbers and use this tested recipe from the Ball Blue Book to make Bread-and-Butter Chips for your "star boarders."

3 quarts sliced cucumbers

3 onions, sliced

5½ cups vinegar

3 cups brown sugar

1 pod hot red pepper

1 teaspoon cinnamon

½ teaspoon ginger

2 tablespoons mustard seed

1 teaspoon turmeric

½ tablespoon celery seed

1 piece horseradish

Soak cucumbers and onions (separately) 5 to 10 hours in brine made by dissolving one-half cup of salt in one-half gallon cool water. Drain well. Add onion, 2½ cups vinegar, and 2½ cups water to the cucumbers. Simmer about 15 minutes. Do not cook until soft. Drain. Discard liquid in which scalded. Make sirup by boiling the sugar and spices with three cups vinegar and one cup water for five minutes. Pack well-drained cucumbers and onions in hot Ball Jars. Cover with boiling sirup and seal.

Watermelon Rind Preserves for the Right Touch

Watermelon Rind came into its own as high style in the little extras which make a meal something special when the preserve recipe was introduced and perfected. It seems strange there was a time when watermelon rind was thought as worthy of salvage as old shoe leather. Now the guest who bites into a crisp piece of watermelon preserve looks at his hostess with new respect and admiration. "Just the right touch to this fine meal," he is apt to pronounce.

That crisp texture is something to be prized. To obtain it, soak the rind two or three hours in lime water to cover. The lime water is prepared by adding one tablespoon of slaked lime (calcium oxide) to each quart of cold water. (If you prefer a texture more like that of preserved pears, soak the rind overnight in salt water—two tablespoons salt to each quart of water.)

These hints and the following recipe for Watermelon Rind Preserves are from the Ball Blue Book of home canning:

2 pounds watermelon rind
1 tablespoon ground ginger
4 cups sugar
2 lemons
2 quarts water.

Cut the white part of the rind into pieces of uniform size and shape. Soak in lime or salt water. Freshen in two or more changes of cold water. Sprinkle ginger over rind. Cover with water and boil 1½ hours. Drain and drop into cool sirup made with the sugar, two quarts of water, and juice of one lemon. Boil gently one hour. Add the second lemon, sliced thin. Continue boiling until rind is tender and the sirup thick as honey. (If the sirup gets too thick before the rind is tender, add a cup or more of boiling water.) Let stand several hours. Pack into hot Ball Jars. Process 15 minutes at simmering.

PICKLE RECIPES IN FREE BOOKLET

Have you ever been able to buy anything in the stores to compare with the good, old-fashioned, homemade piccalilli? Assistant Home Demonstration Agent Gladys L. Boone says she has a recipe in a little booklet published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture that's easy to make and delicious. The only ingredients you will need are green tomatoes, peppers, onion, cabbage, salt, vinegar, brown sugar and mustard. It's easy to prepare... nothing expensive, no hard work involved, and the results are well worth the effort.

Also easy to make are the fruit pickles. If you haven't tried them before, put up a few this year now that fruit is plentiful. Pears, peaches, and apricots are especially good. And all that's necessary is to simmer them whole in a sweet-sour sirup of sugar, vinegar, cinnamon and cloves.

Then there are the quick-processed pickles made from vegetables salted down overnight and combined the next day with boiling-hot vinegar and spice. On the brined pickles, which take a little longer... they go through a curing process that lasts several weeks.

For those of you who are really ambitious there are the relishes—tomato catsup, chili sauce, and chutney, plus an easy recipe for watermelon pickles—everyone likes them.

Gladys Boone will be happy to send you a copy of this little booklet free of charge upon request at the Agricultural Extension Service office, basement, post office building, Hayward. Besides giving recipes for all these varieties of pickles, there are many helpful hints on the right and wrong ingredients to use for pickling, what kind of equipment to use, and how to use it. Just ask for "Pickle and Relish Recipes."

VARIED PROGRAM LAUNCHES FALL LUNCHEON OF COUNTRY CLUB TUESDAY

An unusually interesting program will launch the fall activities of the County Club of Washington Township when it holds its annual fall luncheon and first fall meeting next Tuesday, September 14, at the International Kitchen.

The speaker for the day, the Reverend John Winkley, a personal friend of Mrs. Allen Hirsch, will motor over from his home in Walnut Creek to give a talk on early California history, especially on that pertaining to this area. In view of the present centennial observances throughout the state, Mr. Winkley's talk comes at a very propitious time. The club officials feel that they are indeed fortunate to procure a speaker so well versed in Californiana. Those who have heard him claim that his knowledge of California lore is exceeded only by his witty manner of delivery, which promises well for those members who attend the luncheon.

In addition to the speaker, a talented young musician, Miss Flavis Richards, head of the vocal department at San Francisco State College, will augment the program. The young mezzo-soprano, who will fly back from Mexico where she has been vacationing, in time for Tuesday's program, was a room-mate of Miss Mary Virginia Bristow during her summer session at the San Francisco College. Miss Richards will do her own accompanying.

The luncheon will be held in the private dining room at the Kitchen and members are asked to use the back entrance that leads directly to the dining room.

Reservations will be accepted only up until this evening (Friday). Niles residents should phone Mrs. Marston Dassel for reservations, and those living anywhere else in the township should phone Mrs. Warren Gravestock. The luncheon starts at one o'clock.

Tonight in thousands of rooms considered "well lighted" young eyes are being harmed by light that is either too dim or is raw, harsh and glaring.

Improper lighting is a principal cause of eyestrain with accompanying headache and drowsy fatigue. In severe cases eyes should be examined and glasses prescribed. But in all cases light must be right—better light for better sight.

EYESTRAIN PICKS ITS VICTIMS YOUNG

1 of every 5 children in grade school suffers from impaired vision. Poor lighting causes unnecessary eyestrain.

2 out of 5 college graduates have defective sight... a result which good lighting might have helped to prevent.

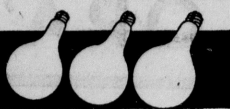

Protect young eyes these 4 ways: 1. Provide a good study lamp for the students in your home. 2. Make sure each lamp has a bulb of the right size. 3. Be sure the light is diffused—not glaring. 4. Clean lamp shade and reflector bowl for better, whiter light.

GRAD GRID SQUAD SET FOR OPENING GAME AT HAYWARD

First scrimmages for the Washington Alumni football team were held this week at Memorial Stadium in preparation for the semi-pro team's opening encounter on Friday, September 17, at Hayward against the Hayward Raiders.

Coach Lawrence Pine has been putting his roster of all-star former Washington Union High School gridsters through some strenuous workouts during the past two weeks in preparation for the opening of the season. Workouts are held Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Sunday mornings, and the squad will have most of last Sunday's powerful team back in the fold this season.

In the three games played by the local squad last season they ran up a total of 110 points while defending their own goal from being crossed. Two of their wins were at the expense of the Hayward club and word has come from the up-county camp that they are out to avenge the last season's defeats with a more powerful team.

The localities will again be playing under the colors of the Vallejo Mills Post, V.F.W., of Niles, and are scheduling their home games at Memorial Stadium for Sunday afternoons throughout the fall and winter.

DECOTO LOSES IN FINAL INNING

The Marlo baseball club of Decoto added another notch to its long list of one-run losses last Sunday by bowing in a 10-9 defeat to the powerful Chapel of the Oaks club of Oakland on the Bushrod diamond.

The Decoto lads, managed Sunday by Frank Rebeijo, went into the ninth inning with a 9-7 lead when R. Lopez, who had hurled an outstanding eighth inning, weakened and was replaced by Joe Sanchez.

Sparking the Decoto batting attack were Sam Elizerry with two for four, one of his hits a triple with the bases loaded, Frank Rebeijo with a triple, two doubles and a single and Joe Sanchez with two hits for four trips to the plate.

FLYING, RACING CLUB WILL BE ORGANIZED

Niles will soon have a model airplane and racing car club, according to plans being made this week by James Fitzhugh and Frank Lewis.

The new club would be for old and young alike whose hobby is constructing and racing the model crafts. Lewis said yesterday that the club is being formed at the request of many local hobbyists to afford weekly competition for the group.

Date and place for the first meeting will be announced in next week's issue of The Register.

The Calimyra (California Smyrna) fig is most generally used for drying.

AWARDS AT STATE FAIR

The Weibel Champagne Vineyards at Mission San Jose won two awards in the Wines Division at the California State Fair the past week.

The local vineyard was awarded a gold medal in the Dry Vermouth division, winning from a field of 14 entries.

The second award was the bronze medal in the bottle Pink Champagne competition.

FLYING

The past week was filled with considerable activity among the local flyers. One group of planes flew to Half Moon Bay where swimming and a sea food dinner was enjoyed. Among this group were Clyde and Ruth Higuera, Walter and June Stammel and Chet Rose with the old reliable "Yellow Peril." Color movies were taken of the flight and will be shown at a later meeting of the Center Field Pilots.

Dr. Tom and Bernice Wilson flew to the Martinez Air Show for breakfast and then flew up to Hoberg's for the afternoon. A one-hour flight in contrast to a five-hour motor trip over mountain roads.

Everett Mendenhall and Wally Ebright have flown to Marysville several times lately in Everett's Beech Bonanza. Wally is having a new motor installed in his Stinson Reliant and as soon as Harvey Kohler has okeed the test flights, he will do his hunting and fishing the easy way.

Next Sunday, many of the local flyers plan to fly into Oakland Airport for the annual breakfast flight and Air Show. September 18 and 19 will be week-end of the Annual Aerial Round-up at Reno and several pilots from Center Field plan to attend, if the gas shortage does not become too critical.

Next Thursday evening the Cen-

IRVINGTON HOSTS TO REDWOOD CITY SUNDAY

The Irvington Merchants have scheduled a home game to be played on the Irvington Elementary School diamond Sunday at 2 p.m. against the Redwood City Merchants. The visiting team, rated as one of the "heavies" in peninsula baseball circles, will be playing its first game on a Washington Township diamond and a record attendance is anticipated.

Manager Frank Mayer of the Irvington Merchants said this week that he expects to start big Hank Dutra on the mound for the localities.

Center Field Pilots will meet at the airport. Plans for several flights during the coming month will be discussed and also the social schedule for the next few months.

IRVINGTON C. OF C. TO FETE BALL CLUB

The members of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce, at a luncheon held Tuesday at Roethlin's Cafe, expressed the desire to fete the Irvington Merchants' baseball team, but could not arrive at any definite form of function to sponsor.

President Vernon Leal, who presided, referred the matter to a committee to determine whether the organization should sponsor a dinner party, barbecue or purchase gifts for the team members.

SCREWORM LOSSES CAN BE REDUCED

Screwworm infestation is a critical summertime danger to livestock, points out Farm Advisor Lee Benson. The American Foundation for Animal Health reports heavy losses have been experienced in widely scattered sections from this fly.

Benson says prevention of injury to the animals is one of the most important steps in control. The screwworm fly usually lays its eggs in a wound on the animal's body. The eggs hatch in a few hours, and the larvae burrow into the live flesh of the wound. They will stay there for a period of from seven to ten days feeding upon the flesh before falling to the ground. The complications resulting from this feeding and the destruction of the tissue may kill the animal.

It is most important to watch livestock closely during the fly season. Any animals with scratches or wounds should be kept in a separate place for treatment and observation. If any such operations as dehorning, castrating and docking cannot be postponed until cooler weather, be careful to keep flies from entering the wounds.

If screwworm infestation is suspected, have a veterinarian check the animals and set up a course of treatment to stop the damage before it goes too far. The U. S. Department of Agriculture recommends Smear 62 as a repellent. It is composed of benzol (which destroys the larvae), diphenylamine (protects the wound against infestation), turkey red oil, and lamp black. Because the benzol is highly inflammable, this mixture must be kept away from open flame, lighted cigars, cigarettes, or pipes.

When an animal has been injured, apply Smear 62 to thoroughly cover the raw tissue and surrounding areas as a preventative. If the wound has already been infested with screwworms, the prepared mixture is swabbed into the wound, making sure that it reaches all pockets made by the larvae. A one-inch paint brush may be used. Apply a second treatment after 24 to 48 hours.

LOW TEMPERATURES SPOIL MELONS

Low storage temperature for melons may cause them to deteriorate when they are removed to room temperature, according to Vernon Miller, assistant farm advisor, University of California Agricultural Extension Service.

Cantaloupes and similar melons will usually ripen after they are picked if they are "half-slips" or riper. However, storage tests conducted by the College of Agriculture show that prolonged exposure to temperatures below 40 degrees F. may prevent the melon from ripening. Honeydew and Crenshaw melons will deteriorate rapidly at room temperature after being held for four days or more at 32 degrees, while cantaloupes are somewhat more tolerant of low temperatures. Keeping melons in direct contact with ice can also be harmful if the period is prolonged.

This means that unripe melons left at too low temperatures during transit, storage, or in the home, may never attain satisfactory dessert quality. Best ripening occurs at room temperature. After the melon is ripe enough for eating, then low temperature storage is best suited for holding it until consumed.

FEWER CHICKENS RAISED ON FARMS IN 1948

The number of young chickens raised on farms in the United States has dropped 15 per cent below the 1947 number, and 17 per cent below the average for 1937-46, says Vernon Miller, assistant farm advisor. He bases these figures on reports obtained for the Bureau of Agricultural Economics by rural mail carriers as of June 1, 1948.

All states but six showed a decrease in numbers of chickens raised. The West North Central States had the largest decrease with 25 per cent for the area. The smallest decrease was the four per cent of the Western states.

Miller says present estimates are for a smaller laying flock on January 1, 1949, than on January 1 of this year. Last February farmers reported their intentions to buy 20 per cent fewer baby chicks because of very unfavorable egg-fertilization and chicken-feed price relationships. Although the egg-feed ratio grew less favorable, the chicken-feed ratio improved as the year went on, so farmers bought more chicks than they had reported in February.

The demand for chicks was very slow during the first three months of this year. At the end of March, hatchery chick production was running 18 per cent below that of 1947. April hatchery production picked up and was only six per cent below April of last year. In May, it slipped again to 12 per cent below May last year. With more favorable egg and chicken prices in June and a slight decline in feed costs, hatchery production increased seven per cent over last year. Most of this increase, however, was in broiler chicks to meet the demand from commercial broiler producers. The demand for chicks for farm replacements was probably about the same in June this year as last.

IRVINGTON POST OFFICE DEDICATION PLANNED

A committee from the Irvington Chamber of Commerce is working out arrangements for a program of dedication of the new post office in that community.

George Oakes, chairman of the committee, has announced that the ceremony will be held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, September 26, and Dr. Joseph Blacow, a former Irvington resident, will be the guest speaker. He also promised that some musical organization would be present and the Irvington Promenaders would present a program of folk dancing.

CENTERVILLE, CALIF.

In olden days it may have been "give a man a horse he can ride," but the modern Don Gaspar de Portola prefers to do his traveling on a Douglas DC-6 American Airlines Flagship whose gleaming exterior rivals the shine of his silver saddle and stirrups. Mike Desiano, official "reincarnation" of the daring Spanish cavalier who discovered San Francisco Bay in 1769, will lead a party of 52 San Francisco civic leaders on a Portola Discovery Flight that will depart by American Airlines Flagship from the Pacific Coast city on September 12 to "discover" nine of the other principal cities of the country. At each stop—Dallas, St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., Boston and New York—Don Gaspar and San Francisco's Mayor Elmer E. Robinson will be hosts to local mayors and civic leaders at luncheons and dinners at which food and beverage delicacies typical of the City by the Golden Gate will be served. To arrive fresh and succulent, the food also will be flown by American Airlines daily from San Francisco. Purpose of the nation-wide, week-long air tour is to invite residents of the cities visited to come to San Francisco to join in the fun and revelry planned to make this year's Portola Festival and Pageant from Oct. 2 to Oct. 25 rival New Orleans' Mardi Gras in colorful beauty and the spirit of carnival.

The Holly Sugar
Kitchens recipe for

"Divinity" Cake Frosting

RECIPE

The cake that wears this frosting is due for big praise. Just follow these simple directions...

2 cups Holly Sugar
1 cup water
2 egg whites
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. cream of tartar, or a few drops of lemon juice
1 tsp. vanilla

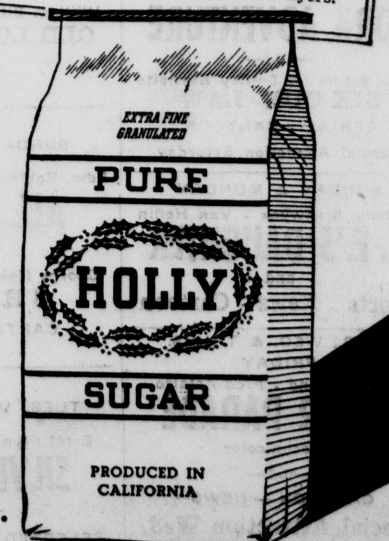

Stir sugar and water in saucepan till sugar is completely dissolved. Boil without stirring until syrup spins a wavy thread about 3-inches long when dropped from tip of spoon, or until syrup reaches about 238° F. (On cloudy or rainy days, boil syrup to a temperature 2 to 4 degrees higher than on sunny days because of humidity.) Beat egg whites and salt until frothy. Add syrup in a thin stream, beating egg whites constantly. Beat in cream of tartar or lemon juice, and vanilla; continue to beat until icing is desired spreading consistency. Enough for tops and sides of two 8-inch cake layers.

Holly Sugar has the quality you need for eating treats. Because no sugar in the world is purer. And none is whiter, sweeter or finer in grain than this wonderful sugar your neighbors produce!

Many housewives hereabouts buy the sugar named HOLLY. They do so because Holly Sugar is perfect for baking, cooking, canning and at table. Always white—pure. Always sweet, free-running, fine in grain. Holly is made with sugar beets which farmers around here grow. Holly Sugar is processed in the local Holly factory. All this puts money into circulation around here... is good for local business.

And this is important: When this local sugar is sold in these local parts—close to where it's grown and made—freight costs are saved. These are savings Holly shares with beet growers in this area. So the more Holly Sugar that is sold at home, the more local growers receive for their sugar beets.

Extra dollars kept at home help make your own living better. So don't accept just any sugar. Insist on getting HOLLY!

The number of building permits for single family dwellings issued during the past month in Alameda county topped to 214 as compared with 318 for the previous month.

Marcus S. Carlson, building official for the county, in his monthly report, revealed that the total valuation of building permits issued during August was $3,297,300, nearly a million dollar increase over the $2,309,755 valuation of permits issued during July.

He accounted for the large increase by the fact that three school buildings with a total of $1,527,100 were included in this month's tabulations.

FOR KANSANS ONLY

Hear ye, hear ye, all ex-eastern-Kansans, who have forsaken the middle west and have transferred your loyalties, in general, to California and, in particular, to Washington Township. You are invited to attend a get-together picnic at Alum Rock Park near San Jose on Sunday, September 26. The picnic is for the especial purpose of providing you with an opportunity of waxing nostalgic over the "good old days in Kansas." If you are interested, contact Mrs. Fred Duffe of Niles, P. O. Box 302, or phone her at Niles 4506.

GRAVESIDE SERVICES

Graveside services will be conducted at the I.O.O.F. Cemetery in Irvington on Sunday at 2 p.m. in memory of the late Leo A. De La Roze who succumbed recently in Ripon. The deceased was the grandson of the late J. T. Walker, a pioneer of Washington Corners, now named Irvington.

After the grain is sprayed in the bins, cover the top with a tarpaulin. The fumigation period should be 24 hours with the temperature 70 degrees or higher.

Further information about grain pests in stored grain and their control is available in a circular of the University of California Agricultural Extension Service, entitled Stored-Grain Pests on the Farm. It will be mailed free to growers requesting it from the Extension Office, post office building, Hayward.

RED CROSS TO ELECT

The exact date of the annual election of officers for the Washington Township Branch of the American Red Cross has not as yet been set, but LeRoy A. Brown, chairman, said yesterday that it will be held late in September.

When California was ceded to the United States in 1848, San Francisco had 820 people, 200 houses, one school, one newspaper and two wharves.
